“CIRCLES IS A CREATIVE OUTLET FOR ME AND MY TEAM, WHO ARE AS AMAZING AND FULL OF LIFE AS THE SALON.”

SHARLENE LEE

There's a funky, energetic vibe at Circles of Subiaco, which owner Sharlene Lee says is part décor part chemistry.

The newly relocated salon is like something out of an Austen Powers movie. Passers-by regularly stop and stare at the psychedelic walls, graffiti art, giant murals and geometric patterns.

Inside the salon there is an upbeat atmosphere more like your favourite bar or lounge than a hairdressing salon.

“With a coffee bar, lounges, colour bar, lunch table, stylists and make-up artists, Circles is more than a place to get your hair done. It's a great place to be,” says Sharlene.

One of the more unique spaces in Circles is the Drawing Board, where hairdresser and client get down to business, or clients relax with a glass of wine or coffee.
